Local scholarships available for students in Hardin County through Scholarship Central

ELIZABETHTOWN, KY (January 23, 2020) – Central Kentucky Community Foundation has thousands of dollars in scholarships for the 2020-2021 academic year available through Scholarship Central.

Scholarship applications are now being accepted through Scholarship Central, CKCF's easy-to-use online scholarship portal at ckcf4people.org. Using just one application, students can apply for more than $400,000 and 200 scholarships available to award. Students have from now until midnight EST, Sunday, March 1 to apply.

Scholarship Central is user-friendly and allows high school seniors, current and future Elizabethtown Community and Technical College students in CKCF's nine-county service region to apply for multiple scholarships based on eligibility. Students input basic information once and then customize details for specific scholarships.

Many of these scholarships are available to students who live in Hardin County, attending any high school, including several for students who plan to attend ECTC.

Some of the scholarships available to students who reside in Hardin County for 2020 include:

Fort Knox Chapter, Military Officers Association of America (MOAA) Scholarship One $2,500 award and six $1,500 awards to a family member of an active duty, Guard or Reserve military service member or a family member of a 20-year or medically retired or deceased active duty, Guard or Reserve military service member.

Glenn D. and Bennie Lou Hammons Family Scholarship $750 award to a resident of Hardin County.

Hardin County Cattlemen's Association Wayne G. Overall, Jr. Memorial Scholarship $1,000 award for a graduating senior who plans to attend a university or technical school in Kentucky and is a member of the Hardin County Cattlemen's Association or the Kentucky Junior Cattlemen's Association.

James and Betty Holeman Scholarship $2,000 awarded to a graduating senior from a high school in the Lincoln Trail Region of Kentucky and plans to attend a two or four year academic or technical school.

John Dink Memorial Scholarship Multiple $2,000 scholarships awarded to graduating seniors residing in Hardin County.
