Local scholarships available for college students through Scholarship Central

ELIZABETHTOWN, KY (January 23, 2020) – Central Kentucky Community Foundation has thousands of dollars in scholarships for the 2020-2021 academic year available through Scholarship Central.

Scholarship applications are now being accepted through Scholarship Central, CKCF's easy-to-use online scholarship portal at ckcf4people.org. Using just one application, students can apply for more than $400,000 and 200 scholarships available to award. Students have from now until midnight EST, Sunday, March 1 to apply.

Scholarship Central is user-friendly and allows high school seniors, current and future Elizabethtown Community and Technical College students in CKCF's nine-county service region to apply for multiple scholarships based on eligibility. Students input basic information once and then customize details for specific scholarships.

Some of these scholarships are available to college students, including several for students who plan to attend ECTC.

Some of the scholarships available to college students include:

Col. Larry and Betty Sue French Scholarship $500 award to a Hardin County student attending or planning to attend Western Kentucky University Elizabethtown Campus.

Dennis and Lisa Parrett Family Scholarship $1,000 award to a graduate of a high school in Hardin County and enrolled as a sophomore, junior or senior at the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture, Food and Environment.

Hardin County Cattlemen's Association Hansell G. Pile, Sr. Memorial Scholarship $1,000 for college student attending a Kentucky university or technical school and is a member of the Hardin County Cattlemen's Association or the Kentucky Junior Cattlemen's Association.

Rae of Sunshine

By awarding $2,000 to multiple students pursuing careers in the mental health field, Rae of Sunshine Foundation (KY) provides more resources to support people needing mental health services.

Elizabethtown Community and Technical College Scholarships

All of ECTC's scholarships are available on Scholarship Central. The scholarships vary in amounts and are available to new and returning ECTC students.

Other scholarships to ECTC on Scholarship Central include:

Let's Do Some Good Today!

Central Kentucky Community Foundation Scholarship to Elizabethtown Community and Technical College for returning students. Multiple awards in various amounts, which include the following scholarships:

Dr. and Mrs. E.H. Durnil Scholarship

Dr. Larry and Mary Lou Hall Scholarship

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis H. Hall Scholarship

Gourmand's International Culinary Scholarship $1,000 award for Culinary Arts students at ECTC.

Scholarships available through Scholarship Central are generous gifts from numerous donors over many years. Scholarships vary in amount and eligibility criteria. Collectively they represent a wide range of qualifications to reach students at many levels of academic achievement, community and school involvement, and financial situations. CKCF serves a large region, and some scholarships are specific for particular counties or schools. Information about available scholarships can be found at www.ckcf4people.org. See specific scholarships for detailed application criteria.
