Erin O'Neill awarded the Ann Mackin Ewing Memorial Scholarship from Central Kentucky Community Foundation

ELIZABETHTOWN, KY (June 11, 2020) – Nelson County High School graduate Erin O'Neill is one of 145 students earning scholarships from Central Kentucky Community Foundation. She was awarded the Ann Mackin Ewing Memorial Scholarship.

O'Neill is a 2020 graduate of NCHS and will enroll at Allegheny College to study biology. She is the daughter of Brian and Carmen O'Neill.

Ann spent her life learning and teaching in Nelson County. A graduate of Bethlehem High School and advanced math teacher at Bloomfield Middle School and Nelson County High School, she was devoted to her students, with many saying she is still their favorite teacher. She taught for 22 years until health issues forced her retirement. The scholarship, established through the Nelson County Schools Community Support Foundation, is one of two $1,000 scholarships Ann requested her family start as a way for her to continue to support education for Nelson County students she would never meet.

"Through the generosity of our donors, students across our region can continue their education," said Davette B. Swiney, President and CEO of CKCF. "Our scholarship program, Scholarship Central, is a great way to empower local students and show them the impact of philanthropy. It's an honor to connect people to the causes they care about while helping people pursue their educational goals."

The Cindy Ethington Memorial Scholarship is one of 170 scholarships being awarded by CKCF this year through Scholarship Central. The scholarships total nearly $322,000 and were awarded to 145 students from 17 high schools and four colleges in the region. All scholarship awards were announced during Celebrating Achievement, Central Kentucky Community Foundation's scholarship awards program.
