from Central Kentucky Community Foundation

ELIZABETHTOWN, KY (June 20, 2020) – Chelsea Hawkins is one of 145 students earning scholarships from Central Kentucky Community Foundation. She was awarded the Dr. Larry and Mary Lou Hall Scholarship.

Hawkins, of Brandenburg, is studying classical studies at Elizabethtown Community and Technical College. She is the daughter of Jeffery Carey and Angela Sweitzer.

The Dr. Larry and Mary Lou Hall Scholarship was established in 2017 and awards $500 annually to a student attending or planning to attend ECTC.

"Through the generosity of our donors, students across our region can continue their education," said Davette B. Swiney, President and CEO of CKCF. "Our scholarship program, Scholarship Central, is a great way to empower local students and show them the impact of philanthropy. It's an honor to connect people to the causes they care about while helping people pursue their educational goals."

The Dr. Larry and Mary Lou Hall Scholarship is one of the 170 scholarships being awarded by CKCF this year through Scholarship Central. The scholarships total nearly $322,000 and were awarded to 145 students from 17 high schools and four colleges in the region. All scholarship awards were announced during Celebrating Achievement, Central Kentucky Community Foundation's scholarship awards program. You can watch it at https://youtu.be/qqlS2Y_XyKw.
